

HEAD QUARTERS DIST. MISS. AND EAST LA., }
JACKSON, MISS., DEC. 20, 1864. }

SPECIAL ORDERS,

No. 62.

EXTRACT.

II. Col. Wm. B. Wade, 8th Confederate Regiment of Cavalry, will proceed to Macon, Georgia, and its vicinity, for the purpose of collecting that portion of his regiment serving under Major General Wheeler.

As soon as this is accomplished, he will report back with the men and his wagon train to his present camp near Columbus.

All of which is subject to approval of the Lieutenant General Commanding Department.

* * * * *

By command of

Major General FRANK GARDNER,

P. ELLIS, A. A. General.

To Col. Wm. B. Wade, 8th Confederate Regiment of Cavalry.

HEAD QUARTERS DEPT. MISS. AND EAST LA., }
MERIDIAN, DEC. 22d, 1864. }

The within order is approved. Col. Wade will report at Montgomery to Col. Brent, for necessary orders to expedite the collection of his regiment and movement of the same to Corinth.

By command of

Lieut. General TAYLOR.

W. M. LEVY, A. A. and I. G.

HEAD QUARTERS MIL. DIV. OF THE WEST, }
MONTGOMERY, DEC. 26, 1864. }

Approved. All officers will render Col. Wade every assistance in carrying out the orders given him.

By command of

GEN. BEAUREGARD.

GEORGE W. BRENT, Col. and A. A. G.

Pursuant to the above orders all officers and men belonging to the 8th Confederate regiment of Cavalry will report to me immediately at Columbus, Mississippi.

WM. B. WADE,

Col. Commanding 8th Confederate Cavalry.

December 27th, 1864.